

NAME

`mate-settings-daemon` - Handles the MATE session settings

SYNOPSIS

`mate-settings-daemon` [`--debug`] [`--replace`] [`--display=DISPLAY`]

DESCRIPTION

mate-settings-daemon is responsible for setting the various preference parameters of a MATE session and the applications that run under it.

OPTIONS

Help options

`-?`, `--help`

Show this help message

Application options

`--debug`

Enable debugging code

`--replace`

Replaces the current running daemon

`--display=DISPLAY`

X display to use

AUTHOR

`mate-settings-daemon` was written by Jonathan Blandford <jrb@redhat.com> and William Jon McCann <mccann@jhu.edu>.

This manual page was originally written by Joshua Cummings <jrac@internode.on.net>.

This manual page was adopted for MATE by Vangelis Mouhtsis <vangelis@gnugr.org>.